(b) and (c). On 15 August, 1992, the Assistant High Commissioner, Birmingham, held a function for the Indian community at his residence in Birmingham to celebrate the Independence Day. About 300 persons of the Indian community attended the function. About 40 minutes after the commencement of the function, about 30 members of the Babbar Khalsa and other Khalistani Organisations, who had joined the gathering in small numbers, shouted anti-Indian and pro-khalistanti slogans broke the flag pole, desecrated the National Flag and trampled on the photograps of Mahatma Gandhi and Pandit Nehru, which were on a dias. The police officers who were present at the function, were unable to control the situation, and sought reinforcements. The Khalistanis fled when extra police arrived after about 20 minutes. The Assistant High Commissioner and other staff could not resist the ouslaught of the mob. However, two members of the Indian community Shri Jitendra Kotecha and Shri Kamal Dev Pathak, who were present, protested against the disruption of the function and were roughed up by the Khalistanis.

(d) The High Commission of India, London, took up the matter at a high level with the Gritish Foreign and Home offices, as well as, with the concerned police authorities. The police responded promptly by arresting 2 of the Khalistanis involved. They have since been convicted for causing criminal damage.
